"A must for everyone who can afford it" declare devotees of the Hotel Hassler's International-Italian with "a commanding rooftop view of the Eternal City" from its "perch atop the Spanish steps"; "delicious" "creative food, an impressive wine list" and "wonderful service" also add to the "romantic", "rarefied experience"; it's a "super-swank" hang for "the glitterati", so be prepared for "over-the-top prices for an over-the-top" evening; N.B. a post-Survey redo and name change make for a more modern and luminous setting, but the rest remains the same.
