THE HASSLER, ROYALLY ROMAN

*Sitting as a crown atop the Spanish Steps,
The Hassler exudes old world elegance*

Iconic, legendary, incomparable.

Ever since the Hassler opened its doors in 1893, it has held the coveted position as the most prestigious hotel in Rome, commanding one of the most exclusive views in the world over the churches, domes and rooftops of the Eternal City. Set theatrically at the top of the Spanish Steps, next to the magnificent 16th-century Trinità dei Monti church, it is within walking distance of the abundant greenery of Villa Borghese gardens, Via Veneto, Via dei Condotti, and the city's most fashionable boutiques, Rome is a city where the ancient and modern overlap seamlessly, and is home to a small number of world-famous hotels. Despite the fact that specific types of guests tend to choose one hotel over another because of their particular lifestyle, the Hassler is the only hotel that consistently appeals to a large cross-section of sophisticated travelers. Royalty, celebrities, diplomats, writers and business leaders alike all discover the perfect combination of sophisticated luxury, attentive service and unique location in one place, the Hassler.

The Hassler is owned by President and General Manager Roberto E. Wirth, fifth generation of the famous Swiss hotelier family who became co-owners of the hotel with the Hasslers in the 1920s. As President and Managing Director and with more than 30 years of experience in the hotel business, Mr. Wirth, a passionate collector of art and fine wines, welcomes guests as he would in his own home, with consideration and care.

With 87 rooms - among them 21 suites, the Hassler reflects classic and elegant ambience with contemporary elements for a perfect balance between the past and the future.

Like every 'grand hotel' the Hassler has its own common areas: the renowned Salone Eva, is the preferred meeting place of locals and guests for a business lunch, a tea-time break or a light meal after the theatre and the cozy Hassler Bar offers delicious cocktails. In Spring and Summer, the Palm Court is an oasis of tranquility surrounded by a luxuriant garden that offers a wide choice of food all day long. The Hassler's crown jewel is Imàgo, the Michelin starred rooftop restaurant. Located on the 6th floor, it offers not only a breath-taking view of Rome, but also a refined contemporary Italian cuisine.

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN... A UNIQUE LOCATION IN THE HISTORICAL HEART OF ROME

The whole city is within view of the Hotel Hassler

The Hassler Roma enjoys one of the most privileged positions in the very heart of Rome and sits to the right of the spectacular 16th-century Trinità dei Monti church and its distinctive twin bell towers. Both look upon the Spanish Steps whose Travertine white marble stairs have been climbed by literally every visitor to the city over the last 300 years. The Spanish Steps open up onto the most famous square in Rome, the beautiful Piazza di Spagna (Spanish Square), and are the setting for a constant parade of people who take pictures, write postcards, sketch, flirt or just watch the seemingly endless activity around them.

In front of Piazza di Spagna is the celebrated Via dei Condotti, the nearby Via Borgognona and Via Frattina, unmissable stops on the shopping itineraries of a sophisticated traveler. It is all just a few minutes from the Hotel and provides a colorful neighborhood in which to stroll on the way to some of the most noteworthy historical sites in the city.

The Pantheon, St. Peter's Basilica, the Vatican, St. Agnes Church in Piazza Navona and many others are just some of the dazzling sights you can see from the Hassler's terraces and windows.

Nearby, Villa Borghese, offers a 4-mile-wide park of tree-lined lanes, many kinds of sports -- such as horse-back riding, bicycle riding and skating. It is also home to the wonderful, art-filled Galleria Borghese and 16th century Villa Medici (currently the French Academy of Art). Walking leads visitors to an amphitheatre that puts on theatre productions (and is an exact copy of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London), an aviary, zoo, lake, and various fountains and colorfully-arranged flowerbeds.

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

OVER A CENTURY OF HOSPITALITY

Since 1893, the Hassler Roma has been one of the most prestigious hotels in the world

Roberto E. Wirth, proprietor and General manager of the Hassler Roma, is the first son of Oscar Wirth and his wife Carmen. As the second-generation owner of the Hotel Hassler, and fifth generation of a famous hotelier family, he believes in carrying on the rich tradition of the Bucher-Wirth hotel dynasty. For almost two centuries, the Bucher-Wirth family has continued to make their mark in the field of luxury hospitality.

The dynasty began with Franz-Josef Bucher, now considered one of the pioneers of the hotel industry in Europe. In 1890 Franz-Joseph appointed his son-in-law Heinrich Wirth (Robert E. Wirth's grandfather) to manage Albergo Minerva and later Hotel Quirinale, bought by Bucher in 1894. Then Oscar, Heinrich' son and Roberto's father, joined the Hotel Hassler in 1921 as the partner of another Swiss Hotelier, Franz Nistelweck, son-in-law of Albert Hassler. Oscar later became the sole owner of the prestigious hotel.

After this, the Hassler's success and prestige progressively increased. In 1925 with the awakening of European tourism and the first consistent numbers of American tourists, the Hassler became the undisputed leader in the Italian hotel industry. In the 1940s it opened its world-famous Rooftop Restaurant (now called Imàgo), the first panoramic restaurant ever built in Rome.

The Hassler Roma's excellent location atop the Spanish Steps and next to the Trinità dei Monti church provided it with almost unlimited potential. In 1939, Oscar demolished the building almost entirely in order to rebuild it. Thereafter the hotel was requisitioned by the U.S. Air Force to serve as their Rome headquarters during World War II. In 1947, the Hotel Hassler reopened to travelers from around the world and took up its traditional position as a temple of hospitality with few equals in terms of both position and service. International classifications, put together every year to highlight the best hotels, invariably place it among the first.

In 1949, during a trip to New York, Oscar Wirth met his cousin Carmen Bucher, great-grand-daughter of Franz Josef Bucher and fell in love with her. In August of the same year, the two got married, thus linking for the second time in less than a century the destinies of two great hotelier families. In May 1950, their first son, Roberto was born and he is one of the few descendants of the Bucher-Wirth family still at the head of a prestigious hotel such as the Hassler.

Today, the Hassler belongs entirely to Roberto E. Wirth who considers the Hotel his home and family heritage. His commitment, his passion, dedication and personal touch are what have led the hotel to achieve its position as one of Europe's top hotels and the preferred destination for the elite society's sojourns in Rome.

Wirth). A fragrance for women in which the rich tradition and noble secrets of the art of creating perfume unite with the classic refinement and sublime aura that surround the Hotel Hassler Roma. To create this original and exclusive perfume, the famous Italian "Nose", Master Perfumer Lorenzo Dante Ferro, selected the most precious essential oils and natural absolutes for a unique and sensual essence. The diaphanous and romantic notes of Italian Jasmine, Tuberose and Damask Rome are enhanced by the fresh, brilliant nuances of Bergamot, Lemon and Mandarin, and warmed by an exotic background of Sandalwood with shadings of Amber and Vanilla which is soft, sensual and divinely feminine.

IMÀGO AT THE HASSLER

Image, dream, vision... Imàgo encompasses in one word the philosophy of the Hassler Roma's gourmet restaurant: a place where vision and taste intertwine to offer a unique culinary experience.

A sensorial experience which was used as the guiding benchmark behind the meticulous planning and restructuring work that went into creating the new look for the restaurant and its menu – a celebration of the breathtaking view of the Eternal City.

Completely renewed at the end of 2006 and rewarded with a Michelin star, Imàgo, the Hassler's 6th floor panoramic restaurant is loved by the Roman locals as well as by international guests. Soft music, elegant and refined décor, and the romantic play of light reflecting on the mirrors, all conspire to create a magical atmosphere, a sense of being in another time and space in a restaurant steeped in memorable history.

Every detail had been examined to assure the greatest exposure possible to the incomparable view which only this restaurant in Rome offers. As soon as they enter, guests encounter the breathtaking sight of the city, each detail reflected and magnified by the mirrors as well as by the small window that looks onto the kitchen's pastry corner, which shows the elegant linearity of the kitchen all the way to the large windows that look out to the Villa Borghese gardens.

In 2017, after 10 years, Roberto E. Wirth has decided to make some changes of the spaces to make them more comfortable, cozy and up to the expectations. The restyling involves the remake of the flooring with the laying of carpet (for a better soundproofing of the space); a new lighting system with a direct light over the table to focus the attention on dishes; the replacement of the table linen and of some components of table layout. Furthermore, an open-style wine cellar has been created.
